The program covered a range of topics, from the importance of women entrepreneurship to success stories and practical advice for aspiring women entrepreneurs. Statistics and case studies highlighted the positive impact of women-led businesses on job creation, innovation, and community development. The speakers addressed the challenges women entrepreneurs commonly face, such as access to finance, societal expectations, and gender bias. Emphasizing the significance of networking, the speaker discussed the role of organizations like COWE in creating a supportive network for women entrepreneurs. The importance of mentorship and collaboration was highlighted.

The session covered government initiatives and policies that support women entrepreneurs, encouraging participants to leverage these opportunities. Real-life examples showcased how determination, innovation, and resilience can lead to successful ventures. The event contributed to raising awareness about the challenges and opportunities faced by women entrepreneurs and emphasized the need for collaborative efforts from various stakeholders to create an inclusive and supportive business environment.

The session concluded with closing remarks, expressing gratitude to the COWE representatives for their valuable insights. Students were encouraged to explore entrepreneurship and were informed about upcoming events and resources related to the entrepreneurial ecosystem. The audience actively participated in a question-and-answer session, seeking advice on specific challenges they faced in their entrepreneurial journeys. Mrs. Jyotsna Cheruvu provided valuable insights and practical solutions. Feedback from students was overwhelmingly positive. Many expressed appreciation for the informative content and found the success stories to be particularly inspiring. Overall feedback of the program is excellent and active participation of students during the session was notable, and students were engaged throughout the session. The session by COWE, featuring Mrs. Jyotsna Cheruvu and Ms. Sri Nithya Karati, proved to be an insightful and empowering experience. The discussion covered a range of topics pertinent to women in business, offering both inspiration and practical guidance. Participants left with a renewed sense of purpose and a better understanding of the resources available to support their entrepreneurial endeavors.

The Awareness Program on COWE organized by the IIE Cell was a significant step towards fostering gender-inclusive entrepreneurship. Participants gained valuable insights into the resources and opportunities available through COWE, inspiring and equipping them to pursue their entrepreneurial aspirations. The interactive nature of the program facilitated meaningful connections and collaborations within the women entrepreneurial community. The session on the Confederation of Women Entrepreneurs of India conducted by the IIE Cell successfully met its objective of inspiring and informing students about entrepreneurship, specifically within the context of women entrepreneurs. Beyond imparting knowledge, the session provided a platform for networking and potential future collaborations.
